

This tour takes place on Treaty 6 Territory – the traditional lands of the Cree, Saulteaux, Dene, Dakota, Lakota, Nakota, and Métis nations.

As you travel from site to site and appreciate the beauty of this land – we hope you are also inspired to look further into the treaty system and appreciate the long and vibrant history of Indigenous peoples in this area.

14 ARTISTS

11 SITES

1 Gerald Regnitter & Golden Aspen Pottery by Carol Leybourne
 Located at Friendly Forest, 3.6 km North of Hwy 2 / 263 Junction

5 Dorothy & Darcy MacPhedran
 From Hwy 263 to Hwy 952, use South or North access to Carwin Park Drive to 201 Carwin Park Dr.

9 Maureen McIntosh
 Located on Okema Beach Road. At Junction Hwy 263 / Okema Beach Road, turn right (North). Second Driveway on Left.

2 Garry Miller
 Located at 467 Ajawan St. Enter Hwy 263 from Jct. with Hwy 2 then take first right onto Grey Owl Dr. till you come to Ajawan St. Go to 467 Ajawan St.

6 Mary Guenther
 From Hwy 263 to Hwy 952, use South or North access to Carwin Park Drive to 269 Carwin Park Dr.

10 Leslie Tucek & Leslie Blacklock
 West of Christopher Lake Village along Hwy 263 to find Tweedsmuir Hall at the SW corner of junction of Hwy 263 and Okema Beach Road.

3 Tom Laxdal
 Starting at Hwy 263 / 953 Junction, 10 km along Hwy 953 to McPhail Cove. Along Alleyne Ave to Tom's Studio at 104.

7 Gail Carlson
 From Hwy 263, turn onto Hwy 952 and follow Northward and turn right into McIntosh Point. First left, third cabin.

11 All in the Wild Gallery, Jason Leo Bantle
 Next door to Prince Albert National Park, 18 km West along Hwy 263 from Hwy 2 / 263 Junction.

4 Sharon Miller
 Starting at Hwy 263 / 953 Jct., North on 953, turn onto Ambrose Dr. At the stop sign just past Ambrose Co-op Grocery, turn right toward Emma Lake. At the Y, go left along Lakeshore Dr. to cabin # 125 (2nd cabin on left).

8 Jerome Mrazek
 On Hwy 952 turn right to Murray Point. Go past the entrance to the Provincial Campground. Take the first left onto Bedford St. Take an immediate right onto Kaldor Ave. At the next corner is 301 Jarvis St.

ENJOY THIS SELF-GUIDED TOUR THROUGH THE LAKELAND AND SURROUNDING AREAS.

